Star Editor Gets Mail State-Wide

Ever since his Arkadelphia speech Oct. 19 advocating the removal from the voting lists of persons receiving Welfare cash grants or surplus commodities state-wide mail has been coming to Alex. H. Washburn, editor and publisher of The Star. The Star will endeavor to publish all letters. Here is the first batch.

Dear Sir: Glory for what came out in our papers this a.m. Your plan is wonderful. Could it become a law? We would be far ahead if it could. Soon the welfare people will be making our laws. They now put people in office with their vote, and then they expect their welfare checks to be raised.

We have so many people who see how it is for the self-supporting citizens.

What can I do to help? A movement to remedy this thing would be good. Their (the people's) hearts seem to be so tender, so kind — but no consideration is given to the ones who make and pay their own way.

Thanks a million for putting your solution in the papers.

Dear Sir: Wanted to write you and say that your views as expressed in the enclosed clipping (Memphis Commercial Appeal) certainly have my unqualified endorsement and I thank God that there are still men in this country like yourself who possess such noble convictions and who are not afraid to express themselves.

I have long been opposed to a non-taxpaying person being allowed the right of suffrage. Unless we can real soon bring about a complete reversal of policy now in effect in both state and national governments with respect to welfare, foreign and domestic aid of all sorts and kinds, our country will be bankrupt and a captive of the Communist conspiracy.

Years ago I lost all respect for this government and the way we have been taken down the road to Socialism, which is, of course, the next-of-kin of Communism. I suppose my views are more to the right than those of Robt. Welch, if possible.

Dear Sir: I read your article about "No Vote If on Relief." I agree with you. I have known people here for 15 years — always on relief, won't work, and brag about it. They don't have to work.

I'm not against real need for old people or the sick, but I think anyone who does not contribute to the state in any form should not be allowed to vote what I have, or my home, away from me.

They should be thought of as the people who have something to offer to the state. But they want all the privileges that taxpaying people have. There seems to be no limit to taxes any way, and we don't seem to be any better off with more taxes.

Hurricane Is Veering West

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Dangerous hurricane Hattie veered westward today, and was expected to strike Mexico by tonight.

Hattie was lashing the northwestern Caribbean with winds of 140 miles per hour. The hurricane grew in intensity Sunday night.

The Weather Bureau reported its center at 5 a.m. at 225 miles east of Chetumal, Mexico, and about the same distance south of Cuba's western tip.

The change in direction lessened Hattie's threat to Cuba and the U.S. mainland.

Hattie's course had been northwesterly until she ran headlong into a strengthening pressure front during the night.

Says Agent Asked Him to Sell Ducks

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Tony Zerlingo, a Stuttgart rice miller and restaurant owner, testified today that he never sold wild ducks until a federal agent asked him to.

"I never sold a duck in my life," Zerlingo said. "I never thought of it."

Zerlingo and eight other Stuttgart area residents are on trial in U.S. District Court for illegally selling wildfowl. The chief prosecuting witness was Anthony M. Stefano, an undercover agent for the Fish and Wildlife Service, who testified about buying thousands of ducks from clogs and other Arkansas during the past three years.

Evidence gathered by Stefano during the years he posed as Joe Greco, a peanut salesman, resulted in arrest of 52 east Arkansas on duck selling charges in a mass roundup last May 5. Most of those charged pleaded guilty. Eight pleaded innocent and Judge Gordon E. Young consolidated the cases for trial.

The case opened Tuesday and Stefano was on the stand most of Thursday and all day Friday. He ended his testimony this morning. Zerlingo was the opening defense witness.

Sentence of Contractor Is Upheld

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today upheld the 21-year prison sentence of Lee Mode, a retired Conway contractor, for the fatal shooting of D. L. Russell in 1958.

Mode, now 67, was convicted of shooting Russell in Conway Oct. 13, 1958.

Mode had previously won a new trial on a technical error in an appeal to the high court.

Today's decision, returned by Justice Ed McFaddin, forbade Mode to contest any point which had previously been cited as erroneous.

At the time of the shooting the victim was involved in a divorce action against his wife and an alienation of affection suit against Mode.

The Supreme Court upheld Conway Circuit Court at Morrilton in allowing as evidence pictures taken of Russell's wife in 1959 and 1960 in Sallisaw, Okla., and testimony that Mrs. Russell had been living with Mode.

In the dissenting opinion, Justice Jim Johnson objected to the majority finding that all citations of error in the case were disposed of properly.

He said 64 additional errors were cited in the latest appeal and he did not feel they were all covered by the nine citations in the first appeal.

Russia Defies World by Setting Off a Super Atomic Bomb

Communists to Remove Body of Joe Stalin

By WILLIAM L. RYAN

Associated Press News Analyst

BERLIN (AP) — A Communist party resolution ordering the removal of Stalin's unburied remains from the gloomy tomb on Red Square is nothing less than a revolution for the Soviet Union. It is bound to have profound repercussions and eventually may mean the weakening of iron control over the Soviet people.

The resolution means that Nikita Khrushchev has won his war with his opposition inside the Soviet party after six years of struggle. But the Soviet party now will need time for housecleaning and readjustment. Therefore dangerous crises like the one in Berlin may be eased for a while.

The explosion of the monster K-bomb (K for Khrushchev) may therefore mark the high peak of the world crisis in its present phase. Now the U.S.S.R. and the Communist world are probably going to need a little time to digest their internal revolution.

Stalin at last will be buried and out of sight, but it will be a long time before Russians recover from the shock of learning that a man who ruled them for three decades was the monster painted by Khrushchev and other Soviet party congress speakers. Hundreds of thousands of Russians had passed through the Red Square tomb to gaze in hushed reverence at the embalmed bodies of Lenin and Stalin.

What does all this mean for internal Soviet politics?

By STANLEY JOHNSON
MOSCOW (AP) — Five thousand cheering delegates and officials at the Soviet Communist party congress voted today to remove the body of Joseph Stalin from its place beside Lenin in the big tomb on Red Square.

The congress action came in the wake of speeches by Premier Khrushchev and others denouncing the longtime Soviet dictator as a murderer and instigator of mass repression against Communist and army leaders. Khrushchev Continued on Page Three

New Blast Is Confirmed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Atomic Energy Commission confirmed today that the Soviets have set off another nuclear explosion. A spokesman said, however, that no details on such points as the size of the blast would be available here until later in the day.

Tangle in Way of UN Resolution

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)

A procedural tangle and possible amendments stood in the way today of a U.N. resolution against all nuclear weapon tests. Some diplomats expressed belief, however, the resolution would be adopted before nightfall by the General Assembly's Political Committee and sent on for final approval to the assembly.

The assembly Friday approved another resolution appealing to the Soviet Union not to set off a 50-megaton bomb. Soviet Premier Khrushchev described the clamor against the Soviet tests as hysterical.

The resolution before the committee urges all nuclear powers to refrain from further test explosions. The resolution is sponsored by India, Ethiopia, Ghana, Nepal, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia.

The 103-nation Political Committee bogged down late last week in a procedural dispute over whether to take up (1) a U.S. motion to give priority also to a rival British-U.S. resolution calling for new negotiations for a ban on nuclear weapons tests and (2) a Ghanaian motion to close debate and vote on the Indian resolution at once.

Some delegates also talked about submitting an amendment to put a one-year time limit on the proposed new test moratorium. As drafted by India, the resolution would have the moratorium last until "the conclusion of necessary internationally binding obligations in regard to tests or general and complete disarmament."

Blast Believed Even Greater Than Expected

By BO JOHNSON

UPPSALA, Sweden (AP) — Scandinavian scientists reported today that the Soviet Union set off its 50-megaton hydrogen bomb — or possibly one even bigger — in the biggest manmade blast in history.

Dr. Marcus A. Baath of the Uppsala Seismological Institution said the explosion recorded there was "more than 2½ times as strong" as last Monday's blast, which was estimated in the range of 30 megatons.

A megaton has the force of one million tons of TNT, and a 50-megaton bomb would be 500 times as powerful as the first U.S. atomic bomb exploded over Hiroshima and Nagasaki.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev told the Soviet Communist party congress that the current series of nuclear tests in the atmosphere would be concluded by exploding a 50-megaton bomb. Khrushchev brushed aside pleas to abandon plans to set off the giant bomb as "hysterical clamor."

The U.N. General Assembly on Friday sent an appeal to the Soviet Union to cancel plans to test a megaton bomb.

Baath said today's explosion occurred 1,260 miles from Uppsala in a northeast direction. This would place it in the Novaya Zemlya area of the Arctic — the region where the Russians have been carrying on their test series since Sept. 1.

Union Chief Indicted by U. S. Jury

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rolland B. McMaster, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters' President James R. Hoffa's local union in Detroit, was indicted by a federal grand jury today on charges of taking nearly $9,000 in illegal payments from the operator of a trucking firm.

The indictment was returned in Detroit.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said the operator of the company, William F. Wolff Sr. of Youngstown, Ohio, was charged with making the payments.

The local is No. 209.

Kennedy said the Detroit indictment named McMaster and Wolff each on 32 counts involving charges of violation of the Taft-Hartley Act which prohibits an employee representative from taking money from an employer, except for wages or other specified reasons, and prohibits employers from making such payments.

McMaster, 47, was accused of taking and Wolff 51, of giving the payments between December 1956, and July 1, 1959.

The jury said the payments made through Ram Transport, Inc., a Michigan corporation headed by McMaster.

Wolff was identified as president and principal stockholder of the Youngstown Cartage Co., Youngstown, Ohio.

Local 209 has about 15,000 members and is one of the largest locals in the Teamsters Union.

George Roxburgh, a business agent of the local, was indicted by the same grand jury Oct. 6 and similar charges were brought against two officials of a Teamsters local in Chicago last month.

Another Son for Bing Crosby

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A son was born Sunday night to singer Bing Crosby's actress wife, Kathy Grant.

The baby, weighing 9 pounds, 21 ounces, is the third born to the couple. The Queen of Angels Hospital said mother and child were doing well.

Mrs. Crosby returned from London early this month to await the birth of the child. Crosby is in England making a movie.

The couple's other children are Harry Lillis Jr., 3, and Mary Frances, 2. Crosby is 57, and Miss Grant is 27. They were married in 1957.

Crosby has four grown sons by his first wife, the late Dixie Lee Crosby. They have made him a grandfather several times over.

LONDON (AP) — Bing Crosby passed out cigars today and said he and his wife would call their new son Nathaniel Patrick.

"Nathaniel after great-grandfather who was a clipper ship captain," said the singer.

"I don't guess I have to explain what Patrick's for," smiled Bing.

Ike Taking Part in GOP Campaigns

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Former President Eisenhower throws his influence into a congressional race today with a round of campaigning for Republican candidate John W. Goode Jr.

He also has a news conference, a coffee meeting with veterans groups, luncheon with Republican leaders and workers and a parade on his schedule.

Goode, 38, is the lone Republican among five men running for the congressional seat. State Sen. Henry Gonzalez, a liberal, is the leading Democrat seeking the seat which Paul Kilday, a Democrat, resigned to become a federal judge.

The special election Saturday has attracted the attention of President Kennedy, Vice President and Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, Sen. Price Daniel, Sen. Ralph Yarborough, D-Tex., and several of the state's congressmen, all of whom have endorsed Gonzalez.

Sen. John Tower, R-Tex., and Rep. Bob Wilson of California, Republican congressional campaign chairman, have endorsed Goode.

Accuses Reds of Pushing to Disaster

By MAX HARRELSON

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — U.S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson today accused the Soviet Union of pushing the world to its appeal to the Kremlin not to ward disaster by exploding its test a 50-megaton bomb approved last Friday night by a vote of 11-10.

Union reported that the current tests were intended to prevent the United States from launching a nuclear war.

The clash occurred in the General Assembly's main political session against world opinion to carry out the committee, where Soviet Delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin cited the critical Berlin situation as the reason for the current series of Soviet nuclear tests, including today's explosion of a bomb said to surpass 50 megatons.

"Any moment war can start," Tsarapkin declared.

Stevenson charged that the Soviet Union had shown cynical disregard for the United Nations and Union of pushing the world to its appeal to the Kremlin not to ward disaster by exploding its test a 50-megaton bomb approved last Friday night by a vote of 11-10.

Tsarapkin quoted at length from Premier Khrushchev's statement explaining the Soviet government's reasons for going on the Soviet Union as soon as the 103-nation committee convened.

He told the committee today's test apparently was even larger than the 50 megatons expected.

"Today, Mr. Chairman, the world has taken a great leap backward toward anarchy and disaster," Stevenson said.

The U.S.-Soviet exchange preceded a debate on a proposal by five Asian-African nations and Yugoslavia for a voluntary moratorium on all nuclear testing.

The committee had noted last Friday to suspend the debate temporarily and vote, but by agreement the debate was re-opened this morning.

The United States announced its resolution calling for urgent bomb testing under a system of international controls.

chev said as a result of Stalin's purges, the Soviet army's efficiency was at a low ebb at the time of the German attack in 1941.

The mausoleum, which thousands visit each day, was suddenly closed Sunday "for repairs," a police guard on duty there said. The name of Stalin, put alongside Lenin's on the tomb when his embalmed body was placed there in 1953, will be removed. The monument now will bear the name of the founder of modern-day communism, Vladimir Ilyich Lenin.

There was no immediate announcement where the embalmed body of Stalin will be placed. The proposal for the removal was made in the congress in the Kremlin by Ivan Spiridonov, first secretary of the party in the Leningrad region.

ed at 15 to 20 megatons. The Swedish announcement of today's explosion came after a flurry of reports that the Soviets had let go with their promised giant bomb Sunday.

The French Atomic Energy Commission had reported that it was of 50 megaton strength but the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission and seismologists in Sweden, London and Denmark attributed the disturbance to an earthquake near Vancouver, B.C.

The Soviet explosion also was recorded at seismographic stations at the University of Bergen, Norway, and outside Copenhagen, Denmark. Danish scientists figured its force at two and a half times that of last Monday's bomb. Radio Moscow in morning broadcasts made no mention of the explosion and there was nothing about it in Soviet newspapers.

The U.S. Atomic Energy Commission had no immediate comment on the Swedish report. At least 27 blasts have been recorded since the Russians broke the atomic nuclear testing Sept. 3 and set off a series of bombs that grew progressively larger in strength.

Car Washers Get Life Sentences

ELIZABETH, N.J. (AP) — Joseph W. Maxey and Lorelle Parks Jr., 23-year-old car washers, were sentenced to life imprisonment today for the murders of two so-called prominent white women. Maxey and Parks, both Negroes, were found guilty last Friday of the slayings of Eleanor Fowell, 51, of Westfield and Eleanor Tyson, 50, of Plainfield, last May 26. The jury recommended life imprisonment rather than the death sentences sought by Union County Prosecutor H. Douglas Stine.

Judge Ervin S. Fulop sentenced Maxey to consecutive life imprisonment terms, one for each murder. Parks was sentenced to life for Mrs. Tyson's death. Under terms of the sentences, Parks can be considered for parole after 14½ years. Maxey must serve at least 29 years.

No Trouble Today at E. Berlin Line

By MICHAEL GOLDSMITH

BERLIN (AP) — U.S. military units from West Berlin traveled to West Germany today on the autobahn highway without hindrance from the Russians, who stopped two American vehicles Sunday.

The U.S. command in Berlin described the movement as a redeployment. It said the departing units will be replaced shortly by a company of engineers, leaving the Berlin garrison at 6,500-man strength.

The movement actually got under way Sunday, the Army disclosed, even as the Russians barred two U.S. military assistance vehicles from entering the autobahn from Berlin at the Babelsberg checkpoint. A third assistance vehicle later was allowed to proceed.

Western officials speculated that the Soviet action in stopping two cars while allowing a third to pass might be a calculated move. They thought the Soviets might be reasserting objections they first made in 1953 to American patrols on the autobahn without creating a dangerous new East-West incident. By a 1953 agreement the Soviet army admitted responsibility for security on the highway.

By halting the assistance vehicles altogether, the Soviets could have provoked the U.S. Army into another show of force to safeguard Allied rights in Berlin.

The last show of force ended in an informal truce Saturday after American and Soviet tanks had stood on either side of the Berlin wall at the Friedrichstrasse crossing point for 18 hours with their guns trained at point blank range. The tanks were rushed up after four U.S. armed thrusts into East Berlin during the week to uphold the right of American civilian officials to cross the border without submitting identity papers to East German police.

The Soviet tanks withdrew Saturday morning to an encampment in a war-ruined palace on Unter den Linden. The American Patrons set up temporary positions near the far end of Friedrichstrasse.

U.S. Seeking Peaceful Way in Berlin

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, seeking a peaceful end to the Berlin border dispute, has decided to try to make a bargain with the Soviet Union that could involve U.S. agreement to show official identification documents to East German border police.

U.S. Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson has been instructed to make a new approach to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko early this week. Officials said the Kennedy administration has decided that the East German demand to see identification cards of U.S. officials when they enter East Berlin does not threaten Western interests enough to bring on a shooting conflict. The British have been showing identification cards for some time.

The possibility of a deal is being considered under which Soviet authorities going into West Berlin would have to submit credentials to West German police. There was also discussion of bargaining for an increased number of crossing points into East Berlin for the Western allies if the United States is to accept the showing of credentials to East German police.

If a deal is made, it obviously would involve modification of U.S. policy on Berlin. Washington does not recognize the Communist East Berlin government and has blocked past efforts aimed at direct dealings of any kind with the regime. On the other hand, officials said today, the United States and its allies hinge the intention of being excluded from East Berlin. If the East Germans should close the border entirely to Western officials, the United States, Britain and France have a plan to open it by force if necessary.

HER FRIEND WON'T LET HER WRITE FINIS

By Helen Worden Erskine

Dear Helen: The man I love fears love. Ever since we met at college two years ago he has been one heartbreak after another for me.

I know he cares more than he will admit; but rather than turn the knife in the wound, I've written finish many times to our romance. He will agree in one breath, saying "We must be casual friends, nothing more," then next weekend drive hundreds of miles just to see me. Once he explained that he came from a broken home and feared to love.

I crave his love above all. He's 25, I'm 21. We're of the same religious and social background and have the same general interests. To continue with him is sheer

Katanga Troops Are Advancing

ELIZABETHVILLE, Katanga (AP) — Troops of the national Congolese army today were reported continuing to advance into Katanga Province, razing villages and murdering women and children on their way.

The Elizabethville newspaper Echo du Katanga said all-day battle was fought Saturday near Katanga's border with South Kasai Province.

The report said Little was known about the outcome of the battle.

The invading troops had been ordered back to their bases while the Leopoldville and Elizabethville governments negotiated for a settlement to end Katanga's secession.

torture and so, for the tenth time I said "Good bye." Now, he writes that he is returning to college for post-graduate work and invites me to the football game and homecoming week and the dance that night. My room-mate has asked me to stay with her that week. Whether or not I accept his invitation he and I will inevitably meet. Should I risk black despair for a few hours utter happiness? Wouldn't it be wiser not to go at all? —Miserable.

Dear Miserable: You're both acting like scaredy cats. Go to the football game and homecoming dance with your man. Have fun and don't be so serious. Perhaps he isn't ready for the responsibilities of marriage. Stop forcing the issue. That's enough to give him the jitters. Console yourself with the fact that he cares, else he wouldn't be trying to write the next chapter when you've signed off.

Dear Helen: I have a problem sister. Her husband is in the Service. They had been married three years when she talked him into signing up for overseas duty with the promise that she would go along. She took her shots, got clothes, said goodbye to all of us then, at the last minute, backed out.

We were furious with her for not keeping her word and standing by her husband whom we all love.

Lamb that he is, he said what made her happy made him happy. So he rented her an apartment. She refused to live in it, then, in despair, he took her to his mother's and left. Two weeks later she turned up at our Dad's home. He is ill but did that worry her? Now, she's gallivanting around with a married man, the father of two children. We've tried to tell her what a mess she's making of her life, to say nothing of the disgrace she's bringing to us but she just won't listen. Her husband knows all, supports her and their little boys and is even willing to forgive and forget. She laughs and continues her wild ways. What would you do with a sister like that? —Worried.

Dear Worried: You are not your sister's keeper! Much as you deplore her conduct, what she does is none of your business unless it affects you directly. Only if she seeks your advice have you a right to interfere. We cannot lead other people's lives for them. Let your sister work out her own destiny. Hands off!

Dear Helen: I want to move back to my home town and don't know how to tell my husband. We've lived in this new place four months. Our five children aren't any more reconciled than I. My husband's people are helping us buy the house. He's got a good job here but he can get an equally good one in my home town where my people live and where I long to be. If we do return it does mean using our savings to swing the shift, but I am miserable here and have crying spells every day. I feel childish but my happiness means the happiness of our family. Please help.

—Homesick.

Dear Homesick: I sympathize but your husband is the breadwinner and the welfare of the family depends upon whether he, not you, is happy in job and environment. If he is content, say nothing for the present. Give the new environment a fair try. If, at the end of the first year, you are still homesick, then talk to your husband. Meanwhile, bear in mind that your children will reflect your mood. So, for his sake and theirs, determine to be cheerful. Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine, 1414 N. Main St., Hope, Ark. 71301. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope and address her care of this newspaper. Helpful letters available. Today's offering: "The Ideal Wife."

Eagles Tops in National East Loop

By MIKE RATHET, Associated Press Sports Writer

Sonny Jurgensen, who collected splinters and experience while Norm Van Brocklin was directing the Philadelphia Eagles, has stepped in to guide the defending National Football League champions to the top of the Eastern Conference.

The 27-year-old former Duke standout passed the Eagles into sole possession of first place in the East Sunday with a three-touchdown performance—the last of a 41-yard heave to Tommy McDonald with 16 seconds remaining to beat the upstart Washington Redskins 27-24.

The TD loss to McDonald was Jurgensen's 14th of the season—top mark in the league—and gave the defending titlists a 6-1 record and a one-game edge over New York and Cleveland at the half-way mark of the expanded 14-game schedule.

The Giants dropped out of a first-place tie when Dallas' Allen Green kicked a 32-yard field goal with 1:23 remaining for a 17-16 Cowboy victory, and the Browns moved up by beating the St. Louis Cardinals 21-10.

In the Western Conference, Green Bay kept rolling with a 28-10 thumping of Minnesota for its sixth consecutive victory since an opening game loss and maintained a one-game lead over the Chicago Bears, 21-20 conquerors of the Baltimore Colts. San Francisco fell back, losing to Pittsburgh 20-10. Detroit whipped Los Angeles 28-10.

Jurgensen started the Eagles' desperation drive with 50 seconds remaining after the hapless Redskins, who list their seventh in succession and 15th over a two-season span, had taken the lead on a seven-yard flip from rookie Norm Snead to first-year fullback Jim Cunningham.

The Eagles began from their own 20 after the kickoff with Jurgensen firing 19 and 20 yard strikes to Bobby Walston, missing once, then arching the clincher to the speedy McDonald.

Green's winning field goal against the Giants (5-2) came after New York had come from behind to take a 16-14 lead on a five-yard touchdown pass from rookie halfback Bob Gaiters to Kyle Rote and Pat Summerall's three field goals. Eddie LeBaron had fired TD passes of 14 and 14 yards to Frank Clarke and Dick Bielski as the Cowboys (4-3) built a 14-0 lead.

The Browns (5-2) struck for two touchdowns within 35 seconds in the first quarter. Bobby Franklin racing 19 yards on a fake field goal attempt and Milt Plum hitting Ray Renfro with a 12-yard pass after the Cards (3-4) fumbled the kickoff. Army-bound Bobby Mitchell, playing in his last game, rambled 56 yards for another Cleveland score.

Paul Hornung, who gets a physical today to determine his fitness for the Army, scored on a one-yard plunge, passed 10 yards to Ron Kramer for another touchdown and kicked four conversions as the Packers belted the Vikings (1-6). Hornung, the league's scoring leader, now has 102 points.

A pass interference moved the Bears (3-2) to the 17 in the fourth quarter against the Colts (3-4) and set up the winning touchdown. Rick Casares got it on a runs with Dan Lewis scoring five-yard run and Roger LeClerc twice and quarterback Jim Nicks kicked the all-important extra ovski and Ken Webb once each.

Catcher of Lucky Ball Is Married

NEW YORK (AP)—Sal Durante has married the girl friend who was sitting beside him in the Yankee Stadium bleachers when he caught the first home run ball hit by Yankee slugger Roger Maris on Oct. 1.

Durante, 19, a Brooklyn mechanic, and the former Rose Calabrese, 17, a secretary, leave by plane today for Sacramento, Calif., where he will collect $5,000 for his lucky catch.

They were married Sunday at St. Finbar's Roman Catholic church.

Before the wedding, Durante said that if it hadn't been for the $5,000 in the offing he probably couldn't have gotten married so soon.

Sam Gordon, a Sacramento restaurant owner, offered Durante $5,000 to turn over the history-making baseball to Maris. Gordon said he will give Durante a check for $5,000 Nov. 4 at the formal baseball swap. Gordon also paid for the honeymoon trip by plane.

The margin of victory was provided by linebacker Bill George, who broke through to block a conversion attempt by Steve Myra.

The Steelers (2-5) raced to a 17-0 first period lead against the 49ers (4-3) on a 30-yard TD jaunt by John Henry Johnson, an 11-yard pitch from Rudy Bukich to Tom Tracy and the first of Lou Michael's two field goals.

Jon Arnet of the Rams (1-6) ran a kickoff back 105 yards, one yard shy of the league record, but the Lion's (4-3) tack got the job done. All four Detroit touchdowns came on short down. Rick Casares got it on a runs with Dan Lewis scoring five-yard run and Roger LeClerc twice and quarterback Jim Nicks kicked the all-important extra ovski and Ken Webb once each.

Negro Family Plans Move to Africa

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP)—A Battle Creek Negro announced Sunday that he and his family plan to move to Africa because "I'm sick of prejudice which is just as prevalent in the North as in the South."

Herman McGee, 36, veteran of World War II, said he, his wife and their two children planned to give up their United States citizenship and move to Nigeria, Liberia, or Ghana. "We'll never be able to live like first-class citizens here," he said. "I'll be dead long before segregation is broken down here."

"Freedom isn't just something you feel. A Negro has a psychological barrier. It's impossible for him to say he's a free man and really believe it himself," he said.

McGee said he and his family still planned to move after the refusal of Houston, Tex. contractor Robert E. Nesmith to pay their fare.

Nesmith has said he will pay for the passage of any Communist or Socialist if he will leave the United States and renounce his citizenship.

McGee answered Nesmith's offer, but the Texan said he would not pay McGee's way to Africa because "I'm not a transportation service for people who just don't want to stay here."

It will take about three years to raise the necessary money on his own, McGee said. He and his wife Lillian, 34, own a recreation hall and beauty shop here. Their children are Anthony, 13, and Gwendolyn, 16.

Against Sending Viet Nam Troops

MANILA (AP)—Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor arrived today to complete a report to President Kennedy that informants said is expected to advise against sending American combat troops to Communist-threatened South Viet Nam.

Kennedy's military adviser and his aides went into seclusion at the Philippine mountain resort city of Baguio after his fact-finding mission to Southeast Asia. Sources with Taylor's party emphasized the general has reached no final decisions but said the odds appeared against his recommending movement of American troops into the troubled area—at least at the present time.

Must Pay Mexicans $3 Per Hundred

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Employment Security Division says that, starting today, Mexican nationals employed by Arkansas cotton farmers must be paid a minimum of $3 per hundredweight of picked cotton.

Earlier this year, the U.S. Department of Labor held the Braceros' wage level must be raised from $2.50 to $3 after 55 per cent of the cotton had been harvested. The ESD estimated some 21,000 Braceros are working in Arkansas cotton fields this year.

Salinger Confers With British

LONDON (AP)—The chief British Foreign Office spokesman, John Russell, conferred today with Pierre Salinger, President Kennedy's press secretary, who is visiting Europe.

Russell told newsmen the meeting was merely "a resumption of contacts" and had nothing to do with published rumors of a visit to Europe by Kennedy.

Started Car But Took His Money

ATLANTA (AP)—William A. Higginbotham's car stalled at an intersection. Another drive came ble mass of radioactive debris along, gave him a push and the car started.

Higginbotham stopped, got out and offered the good Samaritan a dollar for his trouble. Then, Higginbotham told police, the stranger flashed a knife and took all his cash—$31.

The Trans-Canada Highway under construction since 1949, is expected to be completed in 1963.

U.S. experts have said they saw no need for undue alarm or for any immediate action to protect health. Most of the debris from the explosion is believed to have gone into the stratosphere and was not expected to settle to earth for months.

Arkansan Places in Oklahoma Race

MUSKOGEE, Okla. (AP)—Tim Collins, Denver, Colo., won the first race of the second annual Oklahoma Grand Prix here Saturday.

In the second race Dr. E. L. Hutchison, Pine Bluff, Ark., won in the G Production Class in a Lotus 7-A.

Paying Bill for Indian UN Envoy

NEW YORK (AP)—An American landlady said today she is paying a $252 hotel bill of the Indian ambassador to the United Nations, who moved out of her apartment building temporarily in a dispute.

The landlady, Betty Roberts, said she had dispatched a check to Ambassador C. S. Jha through the American U.N. delegation.

She made it clear she holds no grudge against Jha. "I truly believe he is a good man," she said.

Mrs. Roberts said she decided to pay the hotel bill for ambassador and Mme. Jha because she got the impression that the United States would do so if she didn't, in order to keep things amicable.

The landlady went on to say she didn't see why American taxpayers should have to foot the bill because of a private squabble between her and the Jhas.

Mrs. Roberts made no further reference to Mme. Jha. Earlier she had asserted: "It's a battle between Mme. Jha and me. It would not be doing justice to the image of the free American woman if I let her trample over me."

But Mrs. Roberts said everything could have been settled peaceably in the first place if it hadn't been for pressure from American attorneys representing the Indian delegation. However, she said, this pressure had nothing to do with her decision to pay the Jha hotel bill.

The dispute began when the Jhas complained of noise resulting from repair work in an apartment of another tenant in Mrs. Roberts' building. This, it was said, disturbed Mme. Jha's recuperation from a heart attack.

The ambassador and his wife moved from their $1,600-a-month, 10-room suite in Mrs. Roberts' building to quarters in a hotel where they lived six days.

Zoologists believe a jellyfish can tell which way is up because of a small organ called the statocyst, situated at the base of the tentacles.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special)—For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain—without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place.

Most amazing of all results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!"

The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.

Power, Glory Was Brutal, Adult Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—"It doesn't matter that I am a coward and a drunkard," explained the priest to his captor. "I can put God in a man's mouth just the same. It wouldn't matter if every man in the church was as bad as me." This, after almost two hours of dramatized theme, did another Graham Greene state the premise on which "The Power and the Glory" was built. The adaptation of the religious novel was presented in a special Sunday night program on CBS.

It was a powerful, slow-moving tragedy with Lawrence Olivier proving once again his superb talent as he played an alcoholic "whisky priest" who had fathered a child. The plot was set in a Latin American state with an anticlerical regime in power. The weak yet devout priest—the only surviving priest—had mowed down. Because he believed he was the only man left in his state who could hear confession and perform church rites, the priest refused to leave and even permitted two persons to be shot as hostages because he was still free. It was a brutal, adult and terrifying dramatic theme. It was a fine, thought-provoking show, based mostly on Hope's familiar Gertrude Berg in her TV-show. The Olivier was powerful and convincing. So were all the other performers in the large cast, particularly George C. Scott, playing the police lieutenant hunting down the not particularly incisive—pretty priest. Scott was able to bring flowery, in fact—but samplings of humanity—even sympathy—to the Hope's jokes and wisecracks kept things from getting too saccharine. Earlier, NBC showed the first CBS: "Twentieth Century" had of a new series, this one called its season premiere Sunday night "The World of Bob Hope." By means of the now familiar documentary method—old film clips, home movies, family album photographs and some specially were restricted, and the program covered Hope's life, particularly the past 40 years in show business. The past 40 years in show business, in peace and especially in a prison. It was a leisurely and interesting treatment, with an unobtrusive but witty musical score. Recommended for the CBS, 10-10:30 (EST)—with a once-over-lightly look at Hungary today, five years after the revolution. The camera crews obviously had another problem finding people willing to talk who could talk the past 40 years in show business. But they got enough to tell, in peace and especially in a prison. The narration by the mellancholy Chester Morris guest-stars as an early George C. Scott, playing the

Legislators Offer Reform

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A small group of state legislators, bent on promoting governmental reform in Arkansas, announced Saturday they would form the core of a new group with that aim. Reps. Hardy Croxton of Benton County, Ray S. Smith of Garland County, Joel Y. Ledbetter of Pulaski County and David J. Burdette told a news conference their eventual aim is a new state constitution. Croxton, speaking for the group which has no formal name, expressed concern over the inability of the executive and legislative branches to cause certain necessary changes which he said have become pressing needs. He said the group hoped to op-

The Editor packed his cameras last Friday and went off to Shreveport to photograph John H. Harris' 1961 production of the Ice Capades, in the Youth Center at the Louisiana State Fair.
Five of the 10 black-and-white shots are shown on this page. If the color film turns out well on its return from Eastman's laboratory it will be added to the file for a public color show, which has to be presented on a screen.
The Editor has had considerable experience with stage photography, which means shooting with available light rather than flash. Back in 1939 he photographed Mary Martin in her New York stage debut, "Leave It To Me." And the same year in the same city he photographed the Sun Valley ice show at the World's Fair.
Today's last films—both black-and-white and color—make stage photography much easier than it was 22 years ago. But the Ice Capades pose a special problem because most of their lighting is done with spots rather than floods. You have to guess at exposure. My educated guess for Tri-X film was 1/250th at F2.8. On many of the shots I was over-exposed two stops or more. If the Ice Capades come your way another season I suggest you use 1/250th at either F5.6 or F8.

Chrysler, Union Back at Talks

By A. F. MAHAN

DETROIT (AP)—Top level negotiators from Chrysler Corp. and the United Auto Workers union go back to bargaining today to attempt to wrap up a new contract by Tuesday night. Unless it has a new agreement in hand by 4 p.m. Tuesday, the union has told Chrysler in effect it will be struck by that time Thursday night. Chrysler is the only one of the automotive Big Three still without a new three-year contract with the UAW. Chrysler, the only money-loser among the Big Three this year, has offered generally to meet economic terms negotiated with the other two, but it is insisting on a sharp cutback in the number of union representatives who draw company pay while processing grievances and otherwise conducting union business in the plants. Chrysler says that among its employees there is one union representative for approximately every 100 employees, compared with one representative for each 250 employees at Ford and General Motors. Ford won a sharp cutback in the number of representatives in its plants in 1958 bargaining. At Chrysler, as it had at Ford, the work force has dwindled without a corresponding jopping off of company-paid union representatives. Also still snagging a Chrysler settlement are completion of at-plant working agreements, which supplement the national contract. In all, the UAW has 88 bargaining units in Chrysler's 46 plants. The Newark, Del., assembly plant became the 77th to reach agreement when it settled Sunday.

Six Dead in Storm in the Rockies

DENVER (AP)—Six persons were dead and six others were missing today in the wake of a storm that brought wind, rain, snow and cold to the Rocky Mountain states. Up to two feet of snow blanketed parts of Wyoming and Colorado, halting traffic and stranding scores of hunters and motorists an hour ripped across southwest. Four deaths—three in Wyoming, one in Colorado—resulted from traffic accidents on treacherous roads. The heaviest snowfall, more than 24 inches, was reported at 7,805-foot South Pass City in west central Wyoming. The village was virtually isolated. Snowplows couldn't keep pace with the storm. Fourteen inches of snow fell at West Yellowstone, Mont., at the western edge of Yellowstone National Park. From one to six inches of snow fell in the lower elevations of Colorado and Wyoming. Denver had five inches.

Winds in gusts up to 55 miles per hour, sculpturing snowdrifts eight feet high East of Rock Springs, Wyo., on busy U.S. Highway 30, 53 big trucks were stalled or jackknifed across the icy road. Four deaths—three in Wyoming, one in Colorado—resulted from traffic accidents on treacherous roads. The heaviest snowfall, more than 24 inches, was reported at 7,805-foot South Pass City in west central Wyoming. The village was virtually isolated. Snowplows couldn't keep pace with the storm.
